Dr. Jankowski Appointed CNCSD Superintendent

Dr. Katherine Jankowski has been appointed Superintendent of the Central North Carolina School for the Deaf. As noted in the September issue of the NAD Broadcaster, Dr. Jankowski becomes the 4th Deaf woman in the U.S. to lead a Deaf school. This is only the beginning!!!

Founder's Day

William Willard set forth in 1843 to establish a school for Deaf children in Indiana. On October 1, 1993, ISD proudly celebrates its one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of that historic event. ISD, the city of Indianapolis, ISD-PTCO, the Department of Health, the Indianapolis Parks Department, the Indiana Historical Society, IAD and ISDAA will honor William Willard at a dedication ceremony at 10:30 on Friday morning, October 1, when a new marker for the park which bears his name is unveiled on this Sesquicentennial Founder's Day Celebration.

Homecoming

This year's Homecoming is a very special one for ISD. Events include football and volleyball games, Spirit Week activities, a Pep Rally, a semi-formal dance, on-going Sesquicentennial festivities, and the official proclamation by Governor Bayh's office of October 1 each year as ISD Founder's Day.

A group of DePauw University students will visit campus with their instructor Barbara Boles.

Friday, October 8 - 11:00 am

A group of Goshen College students will visit campus with their instructor Myron Yoder.

Thought for the Week:

First Phase of Transition - Letting Go of the Old

"All changes, even the most longed for, have their melancholy; for what we leave behind is part of ourselves; we must die to one life before we can enter into another."

Antole France, French writer

The ISD Campus Bulletin is published weekly during the school year.

Homecoming

Homecoming Weekend is also a time when many parents, former students and staff gather with the ISD community to celebrate "home," Deaf culture, and ISD's proud heritage.

The Midwest Bowling Tournament of the Deaf will take place on Saturday at Woodland Bowl (96th & Keystone) from 10 am to 2 pm.

Saturday ISD's Volleyball and Football teams will face their rivals from the Maryland Deaf School. There are a number of striking similarities between ISD and MSD. Both schools are led by Deaf superintendents; both have made a commitment to a Bilingual/Bicultural philosophy. School colors for both schools are orange and black and both have "oriole" mascots. On one point the two schools paths are very different - ISD has won its last 14 consecutive football Homecoming games - and hopes to make it 15!!

ISD Deaf Heritage Week

The week of activities began on Monday with a campus-wide assembly in Alumni Hall auditorium. The guest speaker was Matthew Moore, 1977 ISD graduate and editor and publisher of DEAF LIFE magazine. Mr. Moore stressed the need for both ASL and English in the lives of Deaf people. A short reception followed with refreshments provided by High School cooking students. Mr. Moore spent the day visiting students throughout campus.

Middle School and High School students competed in Deaf Bowl Games on Tuesday and Thursday. The sophomore class team was the proud winner of the High School competition. The eighth grade team was the overall winner for Middle School. It was a positive learning experience for those in attendance. Thanks to the parents who were able to come and show their support.

Middle School and High School students attended the Deaf Awareness Day celebration at the Indianapolis City Market. Deaf Studies students performed ASL poetry and stories for the crowd. On display at ISD were arts, crafts, and hobbies of Deaf adults from the metropolitan area. The younger students were able to visit Brown Cafeteria for lunch and also enjoyed ASL storytellers throughout the week.

The Student Development Center celebrated Deaf Heritage Week by sponsoring Skit Night on Thursday evening. It was filled with fun and excitement. ISD has some talented young performers.

Friday's Field Day experience for the (Elementary) K-5 Program and the Deaf and Hard of Hearing students from IPS # 70, Lawrence Township, and Washington Township was a huge success. Visitors were placed with age appropriate groups of ISD students and enjoyed a morning of spirited activities. It seemed that many new friendships developed during this experience.

Deaf Heritage Week came to a close on Friday with an Ice Cream Social courtesy of Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream. It was a delicious way to end the successful week. Many thanks to all the Department Representatives who worked diligently to coordinate this year's event. The support of the Cafeteria staff in preparing for the Field Day visitors and the Ice Cream Social is much appreciated. A special thanks to the bus drivers for providing transportation on Wednesday to the City Market. Two of ISD's bus drivers work in the Grounds department and it is not always easy for them to leave their work unattended. ISD appreciates John Rahn's willingness to coordinate the grounds crew so that the students could benefit from the City Market experience.

Go ISD Orioles!!

Family and Student Services Retreat

The Family and Student Services Team Leaders, Diane Hazel, Chris Fetzer, Louise Fitzpatrick, Cindy Lawrence, and Bruce Peters, will have an off-campus retreat on October 8 from 8:00 am until 4:00 pm. The retreat will focus on principles for managing working teams. A summary of their discussions will be available by the end of October by contacting one of them or through VIC. Transition Consultant Ann Titus will facilitate the retreat.

Library Notes:

Don't forget the Great American Book Fair in Alumni Hall library October 4 - 8 (8:30 - 2:30 daily).

The library recently received two books donated by Michael Reis, ISD class of '69 and brother of Steve Reis, cook in Brown cafeteria. Michael resides in Washington, D.C. and has extensively researched ISD's history at Gallaudet University's Archives and ISD's Archives. His article on ISD's history is included in one of the donated books, Deaf History Unveiled by John Vickery Van Cleve. The other donated book is Tale of Two Schools: The Indiana Institution and the Evansville Day School 1879 - 1912, compiled by Michael Reis. We are very grateful for Michael's contributions to ISD, especially during the school's sesquicentennial celebration, which is generating a tremendous amount of interest in the students in researching ISD's history.

The library has also recently received an article, "The Power of the Word," featuring ISD staff members Laurene Gallimore and Michael Jackson in the magazine "Sojourners", April 1993.

Another article of interest is "Captioned Video and Vocabulary Learning: an Innovative Practice in Literacy Instruction" printed in the September 1993 issue of the Reading Teacher.

All of the above materials are available in Alumni Hall Library.

Physical Plant Projects

ISD has received approval from the state to proceed with four projects. The Physical Plant will work with the Superintendent's Office and the State Division of Public Works to:

- Replace the roofs of several buildings
- Repair, replace, render handicap accessible various alcoves and sidewalks
- Upgrade ISD's fire and storm warning alarm systems
- Replace the bleachers in Caskey Gymnasium

For additional information contact Physical Plant Director John Rahn (317) 924-8405 TTY/Voice.

Teachers Note:

Requests for supplies should be routed to Education Team Leaders (Supervising Teachers), who will be responsible for presenting requests to Learning Resource Center Secretary Pam Lewis.

Sprint Offers TTY User Discount

Sprint long-distance telephone service now offers a 5% discount for customers who use TTY's (which they refer to as "text telephones or telecommunications devices for the deaf").

Buried Treasure at ISD!

Friday, September 24 was an exciting time for Middle School teacher Tim Harrold's 6th grade Social Studies class. The group found a secret treasure map, which directed them to the "wild forest" near the old girls' dorm. Following the map, they began digging and unearthed many interesting artifacts left by past generations of ISD students (and some special treats that were delicious!). If you see some of these treasure hunters, ask them about their adventure:

Jasmine Henderson Eugene King Debricka McClung
James Parlett Amanda Huser Jessica Schmidt
Jermaine Vaughn Justin Wilson

Welcome Rita Mowl

Rita Mowl teaches reading and English in Middle School. She previously taught for 14 years at Whitney Young High School in Chicago. She likes the bi-bi approach to teaching at ISD.

Rita graduated from Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf and attended Thiel College in western Pennsylvania, where she majored in Spanish and sociology.

Rita comes from a Deaf family. She has a new puppy that keeps her busy. She enjoys bowling and traveling.

ISD's Yearbook Students and Teacher Nancy Thomas have accepted responsibility for profiling the school's new staff members. This article is the first of a continuing series introducing the many recent additions to the ISD community.

Elementary AEP Honored

ISD's elementary AEP class ('91 - '92) has been honored by Beverly Enterprises as 1992's Youth Volunteers of the Year. The class attended a special banquet in their honor and were presented with a certificate commemorating the honor, along with a $50 cash award.
